The Parish Budget for Fiscal Year 2019 (7/1/19 - 6/30/20) is based on the giving of our faith family for Fiscal Year 2019. The portion of our budget contributed in envelopes, checks and loose cash is $1,768,000.00 or $34,000.00 per week. Contributions for the 24th weekend of the fiscal year were $32,507.00. Contributions for the 25th weekend of the fiscal year were $33,543.00. Contributions for the 26th weekend of the fiscal year were $34,500.00. Contributions for the 27th weekend of the fiscal year were $36,500.00. In the 27th week of our fiscal year, our budgeted goal for ministry programs and ordinary operating expense is $181,000.00 and our collections are $188,848.00. Our collection for Casa Angelica was $12,968.80. Contributions for Christmas were $13,543.00. Contributions for the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God were $13,937.00. Thank you for your continuing generosity.

May God bless you in your sacrificial giving. Lord, help me move from comfort to sacrifice.

For the Pastor
PARISH MISSION STATEMENT
Our Lady of the Annunciation Roman Catholic Parish is a people of living faith rooted in the Gospel, centered on the Eucharist and led by the Holy Spirit. We are inspired by the example of Mary to continue the mission of Jesus Christ by ministering to all.

From the Pastor
FEAST OF THE LORD’S BAPTISM
Today we celebrate the Baptism of Jesus Christ, the beginning of Our Lord’s public ministry and the conclusion of the Christmas Season. As you know, it was not necessary for Jesus to be baptized as He had no sin. Yet, Jesus desired to undergo baptism as a sign for us of humility and of the value of obedience to the divine plan for our purification and salvation. This was an appropriate time for us to give thanks to God for our own baptism and for the saving graces which flow from this great sacrament, a real participation in the life of God. Each time we dip our hands in holy water and make the sign of the cross we are renewing our own baptismal consecration to the Holy Trinity. Each time we celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation we are restored to our baptismal innocence. May the living God who dwells within us through the sanctifying grace of our baptism be honored and glorified by the way we live our faith through loving service of our neighbor.

FR. PETER MGENDWA’S TRANSFER
Despite my best efforts to keep him, Fr. Peter Mgendwa is being transferred to the Estancia Valley Parish effective Jan. 15th amidst a broad variety of assignment changes the Archdiocese is making this month. Because of its multiple mission churches, Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church in Moriarty needs two priests to cover all the Masses. I am ever so grateful for the time we have had with Fr. Peter, a humble and gracious priest, who has been with us only since the beginning of December. Please pray for him as he makes his way east and brings the gospel of Jesus Christ to those fortunate enough to meet him. God bless you, Fr. Peter, and thank you for all you have done for me and for all of us in your short time here!

VOCAITION AWARENESS
The Church often reflects upon vocations in relation to the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. While our baptism opens the door to the life of grace for us and is the primary sacrament for all Christians, the sacrament of matrimony is where most of us live out the life of grace on the journey to eternity. Vocations begin in the home and therefore we need to continue building up the vocation of marriage. When a child grows up in a home accustomed to prayer at meals, at bedtime and at other times, including Sunday Mass, there is a greater openness to the call of God in terms of one’s life vocation. Let us take some time this week to examine how well we are responding to this call of Christ Jesus in our own lives and to how well we encourage others to do the same. As we need to promote vocations to the priestly, religious, consecrated and diaconal life, nowhere more than ever, we must begin by developing marriage as the key vocation.

WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY
We begin our annual Week of Prayer for Christian Unity on Sat., Jan. 18th and continue through to Sat., Jan. 25th, the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul. The theme for this year’s ecumenical celebration is “Christian Unity: Transfigured and Unusual Kindness,” This is based on the experience St. Paul had being shipwrecked on the island of Malta along with a boat load of passengers and fellow prisoners. Acts 27:18-28:10 records the harrowing journey, storm and shipwreck St. Paul and his companions endured as well as the extraordinary welcome they received from the people of Malta. Today we see many, like St. Paul, who are stranded or lost in transit from one nightmare to another due to war, human trafficking, natural disasters, poverty and violence. Are we willing to show that same “unusual kindness” which the Maltese showed to St. Paul? Let us pray that we might show Christian hospitality, a marked, needed virtue in our pursuit of Christian Unity, to our brothers and sisters of whatever background or denomination. Please invite a friend to join our parish’s Prayer Service for Christian Unity to be held in church on Friday, Jan. 24th at 7:00 p.m. followed by a reception in the Community Center.

The poor in spirit is the Christian who does not rely on himself, on material wealth, is not obstinate in his own opinions, but who listens with respect and willingly dears to be a listener of others. If in our communities there were more of the poor in spirit, there would be fewer divisions, disagreements and hostilities! Humility, like charity, is an essential virtue for living together in Christian communities.

RCIA Dismissal
The catechumens will be dismissed at the 9 AM Masses in February. When the catechumens are dismissed, they are continuing rather than ending their worship. They go out after the Liturgy of the Word to reflect more deeply on what they have just experienced. It is not catechesis nor an end to their liturgical participation; it is a time for reflection into the mystery of Christ made present in the Word as they prepare to enter the faith this Easter.

Women’s Guild Mardi Gras
The Women’s Guild of Annunciation will celebrate the beginning of Lent with a Mardi Gras For All lunch on Saturday, February 10th from 6-9 PM in the Community Center. Food items may be dropped off prior to the 5 PM Mass.

That Man is You
Catholic men’s ministry.
Next session is Saturday, February 8th at 7 AM at Our Lady of the Annunciation, studying Acts of the Apostles, Session 9, ACTS 9 “The Persecutor becomes the Preacher” in the Great Adventure Bible Timeline Series by the Ascension Press with Jeff Cavins. For more information contact: Polo Pierro polopolo@yahoo.com 503-5119 or Anthony Vigil avigil@gmail.com 977-7444.

As disciples of Jesus, we are called to become neighbors to everyone (cf. Lk 18:28-30), and to show special care to those who are poorest, most alone and most in need. It is the hungry, the thirsty, the foreigner, the naked, the sick, the imprisoned—as well as the child in the womb and the old person who is suffering or near death—we have the opportunity to serve Jesus.
— Pope Saint John Paul II, Evangelium vitae, 87.

MINISTRY

Liturgical Ministers: Please check your new Liturgy Schedule carefully. Every week, at almost every Mass, it seems we have to “fill in” ministers for those who do not show up. If your schedule and obligations have changed and make it impossible for you to honor your commitment to serve, please inform us as soon as possible. Even if you are not scheduled to serve at a particular Mass on a certain date, please come back to the Adornment Room to see if you may still be needed. Thank you for your conscientiousness and dedication.

Please keep the sick and homebound of our parish in your prayers.

Anointing of the Sick: Wednesday, January 22, 2020 after the 8:30 AM Mass

THE KING’S MEN

Men: do you want to experience your faith in a masculine way? If you answered yes to this question, then you are invited to check out THE KING’S MEN. This exciting masculine faith formation program has opportunities for you to gain a deeper understanding of your Catholic faith in a masculine modality. Please join our band of brothers in seeking a development in our God-given roles as leader, protector and provider. A weekly formation meeting is taking place every WEDNESDAY at Sangre de Cristo Catholic Church from 7:00—8:30pm. For questions, contact TKM.Annunciation@gmail.com or visit The King’s Men-Annunciation Facebook page.
