PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD
As we enter spiritually into the passion, death and resurrection of Our Lord Jesus Christ during this Holy Week, I invite you to join us by linking to our website, www.annunciationparishabq.org, or the services on Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter. Palm Sunday’s Liturgy is the only celebration in the liturgical year which has two gospels proclaimed, one before the blessing of the palms and the other after the procession and readings from the Old and New Testaments. The first gospel is about Jesus’ triumphal entrance into Jerusalem and the other is the passion narrative leading us to the crucifixion of the Lord. How did we go from the ‘hosannas’ in the beginning to the ‘crucify him’ in the end? In MT 21:1-11, Jesus was not looking for a parade, but it seems that the parade was looking for him as the people of Jerusalem welcomed a messiah along with a multitude of his disciples, cf. LK 19: 30-40. As Jesus enters humbly on a donkey, the crowds cry out: Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed is he who comes in the Name of the Lord; hosanna in the highest. MT 21:10. Despite this jubilation, when Jesus does not perform a military overthrow of the Roman rulers, as was expected, the very same crowds turn on him and judge Jesus to be a false prophet and blasphemer. Are we this fickle when God does not do things our way? Will we turn our backs on the Lord when our will is not done? Despite our waywardness, Jesus gave his life on Calvary out of love for all souls who ever lived and are now living and will ever live on this earth. Now is the time to turn to God and to thank him for the extraordinary love revealed in Jesus’ total self-sacrifice upon the Cross. There is no greater love than this–that the Word made flesh should take our sins upon his shoulders and die for our salvation. He humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Phil. 2:8. Come now let us worship him with all our love!

GOOD FRIDAY HOLY LAND COLLECTION
Christians around the world are united in a special way during Lent, Holy Week and Easter. Our hearts, minds and prayers are especially aware of the Church in the Holy Land, where Our Lord lived, walked and prayed for all of us. We are called each year on Good Friday to support the Christians in the Holy Land, many of whom depend on this collection for their very livelihood. As a pontifical collection, the Good Friday Collection offers a direct link for parishioners to be witnesses of peace and to help protect the holy sites. When you donate for Good Friday you help the Franciscans and others house and feed the poor, provide religious formation and education, maintain the shrines and parishes, and build housing for Christians as well as for refugee centers. Like Simon of Cyrene, you can help carry the cross for our fellow Christians under the very difficult circumstances in the Holy Land today. Please give what you can either online or by dropping your envelopes off at the office in order to support our sisters and brothers who are in need, now more than ever.

DIVINE MERCY NOVENA
The Novena to the Divine Mercy of Jesus begins on Good Friday. Please begin your novena prayers and let us unite together over the next nine days from Good Friday until the Vigil of the Feast of Divine Mercy, on the second weekend of Easter. You can find the novena on the website of the Marianists at www.thedivinemercy.org. Rejoice in the Mercy of God, the Lord’s greatest attribute!

YOUR GENEROSITY
Thank you for your outpouring of spiritual and financial support that has continued during these challenging days. Your ongoing support enables us to continue serving the parish and the school in ever new ways. Be assured of our continued prayers and support for all of you as we lift you up at the altar at our Masses and prayers each and everyday. Your goodness and charity are a support to all of us. God bless you and protect you and keep you safe!

Faith begins when we realize we are in need of salvation. We are not self-sufficient; by ourselves we founder: we need the Lord, like ancient navigators needed the stars. Let us invite Jesus into the boats of our lives. Let us hand over our fears to him so that he can conquer them. ...Because this is God’s strength: turning to the good everything that happens to us, even the bad things. He brings serenity into our storms, because with God life never dies.
